HYPHEN 1978

Dedicated To

Sr. Thomasine Cusack, O.P.
Professor Emeritus
Economics

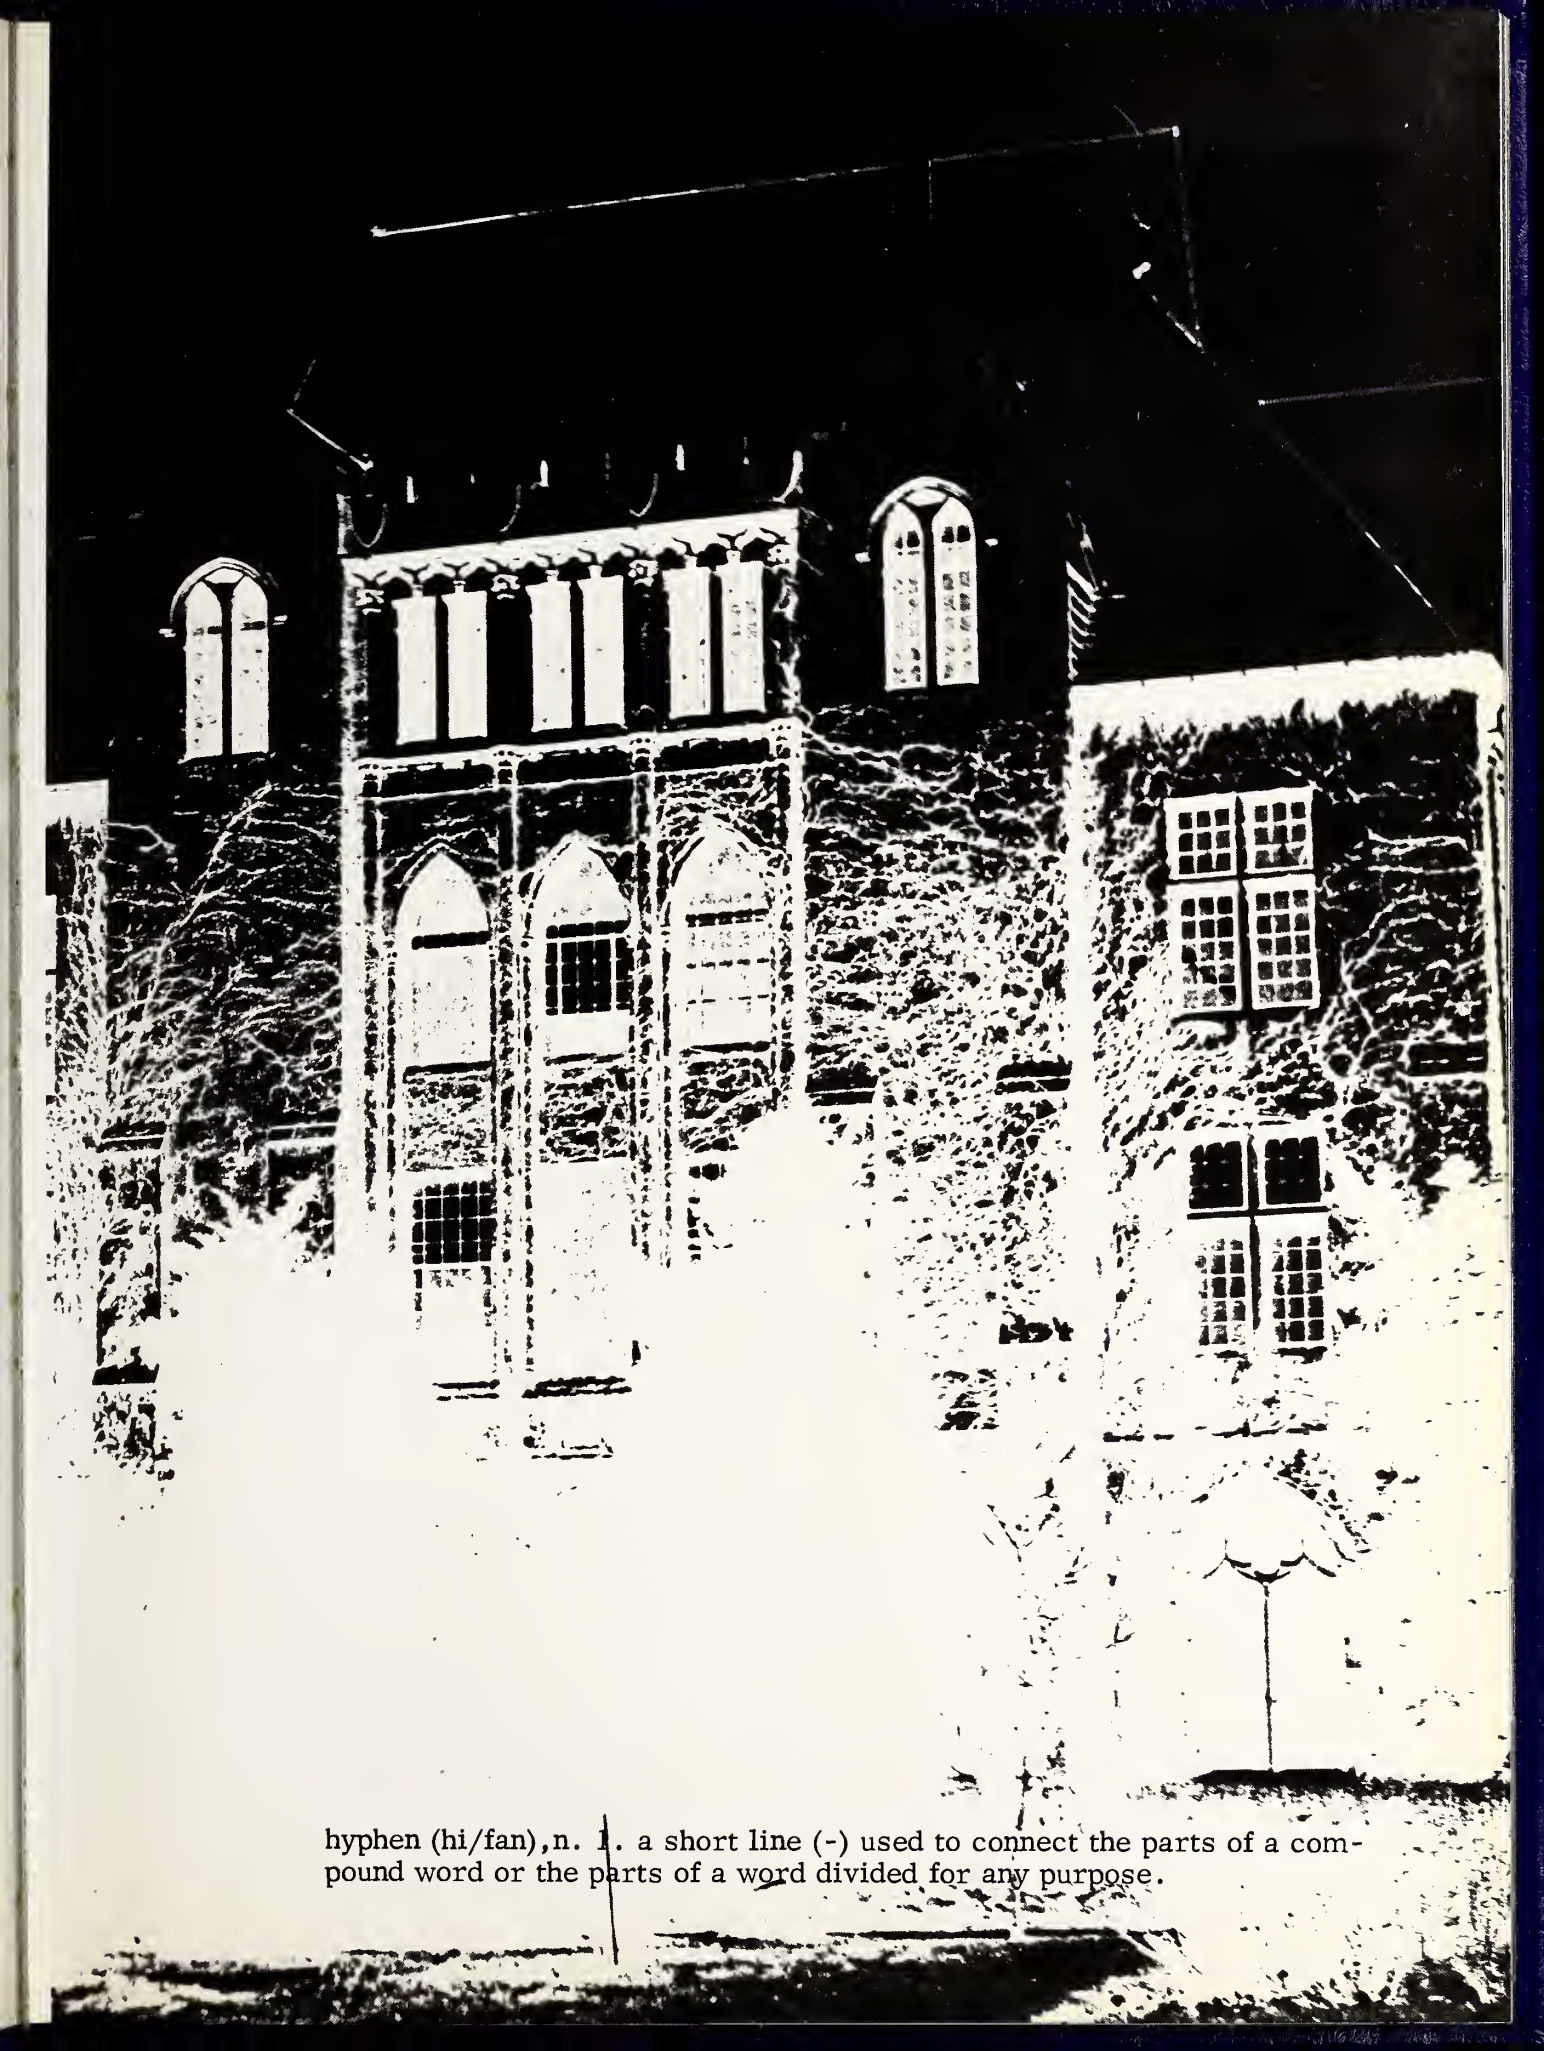

“Don’t Worry Friend. Everything
Will Turn Out For The Best. I’ll
Pray For You Today.”

1905-1978

“Hyphen?”

What a silly name for a Yearbook

hyphen (hi/fan), n. 1. a short line (-) used to connect the parts of a compound word or the parts of a word divided for any purpose.

I was lead into a small lounge area and the guide said:
"This is a hyphen; it connects Power and Coughlin Halls."
Hyphen? I thought,
What a silly name for a lounge!

Midway into Freshman year, having studied there after parietals every night it came to me.
Like a hyphen connects two words, the lounge joins the two halls.

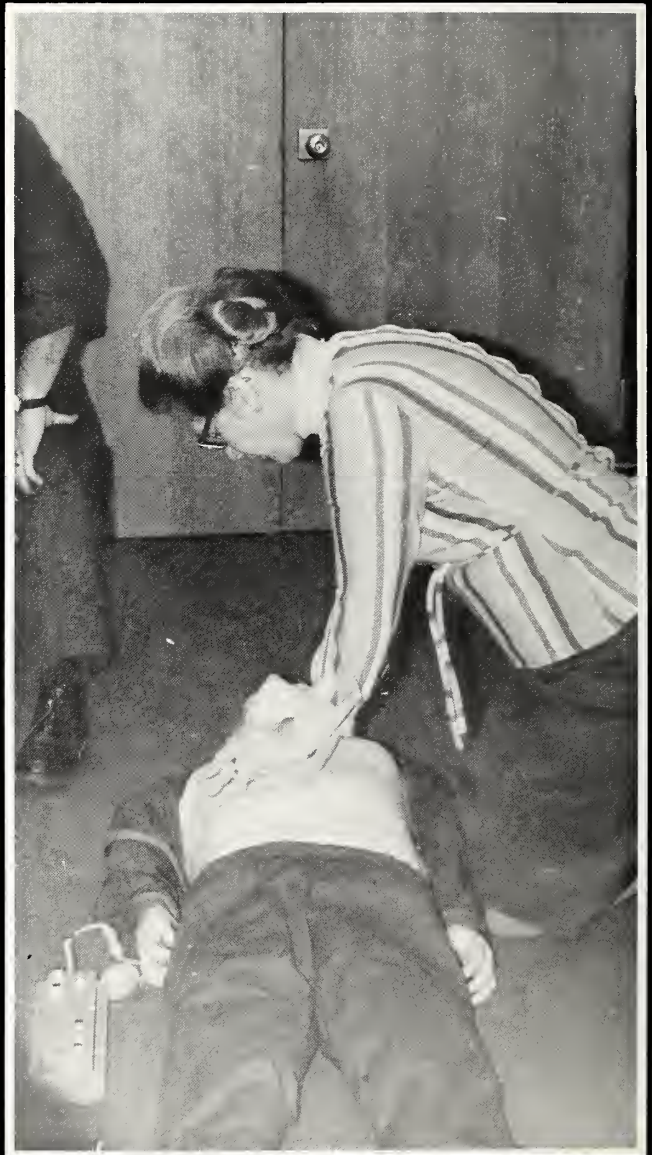

Sometime Senior year
I realized I would soon graduate into the "real" world.
It didn't take long to conclude that Rosary itself is a hyphen connecting adolescence and adulthood.

rosary college (rō/zə ri kōl/ij), n, 1. a small co-ed, liberal arts college located in River Forest, Illinois. 2. a short time connecting two worlds.

Memories of friends
 friends are great for walking;
 terrific, for bugging;
 fantastic, for talking;
 friends are great for hugging;
 'cause friends, you know,
 are friends who grow.
 friends are those you invite
 home for a good meal.
 you can scare the day-lights
 out of them — for real.
 friends understand you —
 just because they do!

CHRISTMAS 1977

Seniors carried on the Rosary tradition of decorating a live tree, lighting up the Social Hall, and sending the college into Christmas merriment. Nick Trongale, Judy Colletti, and Therese Hogan began the festivities. Betty Eccher finished them!

The elves jingled their way through the annual Christmas party on December 10. Refreshments were served in the Social Hall accompanied by gifts to the faculty and staff.

Towards the end of the gala affair students joined to sing Christmas carols.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus hosted the Senior skit in the form of the Rosary "wrong show".

GRADUATION

1978

JUNIOR/SENIOR BEER BLAST
CANDLE & ROSE

THE ACTORS

Juniors imitated seniors in the famed "skit" at the Junior-Senior Beer Blast. From left to right Jim Bednarczyk as Judy Colletti, Robin Nystrom as Patty O'Neil, Ann Van Hoomison as Therese Hogan, and Hugh Toner as Viktor Sidasbras.

Seniors watched the skit with embarrassment and laughter.

Eric and Terry set the Beer Blast to music. Another disco success!

Juniors and seniors waited all year for their prized event and celebrated by indulging in cold foamy beer. Underclassmen were allowed into the Beer Blast after the skits for a small price. This was a slight break in tradition which many believed was for the better.

CANDLE AND ROSE

Candle and Rose celebrated her fiftieth anniversary on May 5, 1978. Unfortunately, it was the first year of rain out of fifty and the ceremony had to be conducted in the auditorium.

Student speakers that evening were Joan Cusack for the Fine Arts, Tekki Lomnicki for the Humanities, Diana LaBianco for the Languages, Lynn Geraci for the Natural Sciences, and Jeanne Ortega for the Social Sciences. "What I Did For Love" was sung by Anna Maria La Sorella, and Diane Hrachovec sang "Candle on the Water". They were accompanied by Bill Dicker.

I'll be your candle on the water
My love for you will always burn
I know you're lost and drifting
But the clouds are lifting
Don't give up
You have somewhere to turn

I'll be your candle on the water
Till every wave is warm and bright
My soul is there beside you
Let this candle guide you
Soon you'll see a golden stream of light
A bold and restless tide has found you
Don't let the stormy darkness pull you down
I'll paint a ray of hope around you
Circling in the air
Lighted by a prayer

I'll be your candle on the water
This ray inside of me will grow
Keep holding on you'll make it
Here's my hand so take it
Look for me reaching out to show
As sure as rivers flow
I'll never let you go
I'll never let you go
I'll never let you go

Molly Burke and Sister Diona lead Seniors to the auditorium for commencement ceremonies, May 6, 1978. A Baccalaureate Mass was celebrated by Father Evan and Father Steve that morning followed by the Commencement Brunch.

After the Seniors received their degrees, three Honorary Doctor of Letters Degrees were presented. These were awarded to Erma Bombeck, esteemed journalist (below), John J. Delaney, publisher, and John H. Johnson, also a successful publisher. Martin Marty, professor at University of Chicago and Associate Editor of the Christian Century delivered the Commencement Address. All gave enlightening speeches.

ALMA MATER, ROSARY

Rosary all praise to you,
Glad the song we raise to you,
Down the years we'll love your name,
Your renown we'll all acclaim.

Your love and truth will ever be
Stars to guide our loyalty,
A light to shine on life's high sea,
Alma Mater Rosary,
A light to shine on life's high sea.
Alma Mater Rosary,
Alma Mater Rosary.

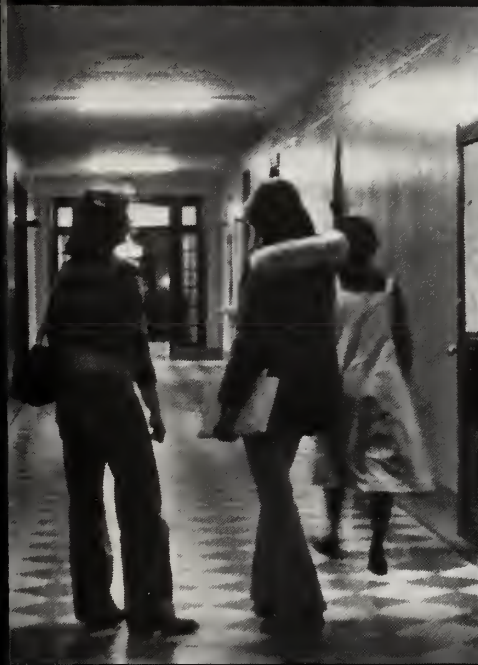

Rivers belong where they can ramble
Eagles belong where they can fly
I've got to be where my spirit can run free
Got to find my corner of the sky.

But to all
It is a place of growth
A place of people
A place of love ...
